

Sound Doctor Videos for patients - COPD

Section 1 – introduction	Section 2
1. Getting started	1) Getting started
2. What is COPD?	2) What is COPD?
3. How can COPD affect my life?	3) Why have I got COPD?
4. Smoking and COPD	4) How can COPD affect me?
5. Exacerbations	5) Discovering you have COPD
6. You and your medicines	6) How can COPD affect my mood?
7. Getting the best out of your inhalers	7) Why do I feel breathless?
8. Breathing techniques	8) Coping with breathlessness
9. Finding out more	9) You and your medicines
	10) Living with inhalers
	11) Getting it right (inhaler technique)
	12) Where can I find out more?
	13) How your healthcare team works
	14) Getting the best out of your GP
	15) Getting the best out of yourself
	16) Staying positive
	17) You're not alone!

Section 3

- 1) How can self-management help me?
- 2) Smoking and COPD
- 3) Why it's hard to quit
- 4) Tools to help you quit
- 5) Air pollution and COPD
- 6) Cold weather and COPD
- 7) Hot weather and COPD
- 8) What is an exacerbation?
- 9) What can I do if I have an exacerbation?
- 10) Clearing your chest
- 11) Some devices that may help
- 12) Can I avoid having exacerbations?
- 13) Breathing control
- 14) Breathing techniques that may help
- 15) Why do medicines matter?
- 16) Medicines you may come across
- 17) Keeping active
- 18) Keeping an eye on your weight
- 19) Looking after yourself
- 20) Staying positive
- 21) You're not alone!

Section 4

- 1) What are my inhalers for?
- 2) Getting the best out of your inhalers
- 3) The metered dose inhaler
- 4) The Easi-Breathe inhaler
- 5) The Accuhaler
- 6) The Turbohaler
- 7) Steroids
- 8) Antibiotics
- 9) Oxygen
- 10) How to use your nebuliser
- 11) What is Pulmonary Rehabilitation?
- 12) How can Pulmonary Rehabilitation help?
- 13) Why do I feel anxious?
- 14) Spotting the signs of depression
- 15) Coping with anxiety and depression
- 16) Nicotine Replacement Therapy
- 17) Quitting smoking – help and support
- 18) Breathe Easy
- 19) You're not alone!

